Support your local Tee-Time Girl

Nicole Kallis graciously agreed to allow us to use her photos for our newsletter, and she extends her best wishes to the Fiesta Men's Golf Club. Though Nicole has been very busy with home life and work, deep-sea fishing for Dorado, and attempting to corral her new pup "Carmel", she still exhibits remarkable energy for her book "Secrets of a Tee-Time Girl". Nicole asked me to express what a great gift idea this is to get for a friend and that she is happy to do personal autographs and will make a special effort to sign books in person. Her book is available at Barnes and Noble; however, she would recommend ordering copies for friends, relatives and countrymen from Amazon.com. Nicole, aka Nikki, aka

The Best Dang Cart Girl You Will Ever Meet, welcomes emails and visits to her website as follows: teetimegirl@cox.net or www.teetimegirl.com.

From time to time we have all driven our balls into a bush, pond or bunker; however, I would suggest that whenever we encounter such an event that we recall the image below and try to remember what initials we inscribed on our balls. Granted, a special club selection may be in order here, and for those like me, who are visually-disadvantaged, this may require additional examination. I am reluctant to point out section 25-2 of the USGA rules; however, in some cases this may apply...if through the green.

FMGC Tournaments

The October tournament results are as follows:

1st Keith (Lefty) Carter & Terry (Always) Wright

2nd Wallace (The Wall) Wilson & Larry (Big) Johnson

3rd Patrick (Haole) Albertini & Bryce (Kiwi) Hodgson

4th Charlie (3 putt Chuck) Beighley & Don (Corleone) Allan

5th Bob (Ramblin' Man) Pavon & Terry (Sandbagger) Boyll

6th Rick (Light Jazz) Lewis & Jim (Mofo) Waas

The November Tournament will be a simple low-net affair, which means it is every player for themselves and may the best sand-bagger win!

Good luck to all!

FMGC News

Lessons from the Pros

Here Dave is explaining to me that the reason I pull hook is that my mind is not right, and that I should consume vast quantities before I even consider stepping on to a tee box....Nicole!!!!!!

The FMGC would like to welcome the following new members: Stuart Gross, Joe Ruiz, Terry Wright, Jim Guthrie and Tom Durham. Thanks, for participating and we hope you can join us as often as your significant others will allow.

Super Saturday is coming up on Nov. 18th, when you can exercise your right to vote on Club Officers. The 1,236 votes Harley tallied for the Presidency, last year, was JUST a bit of an anomaly; however, with the new, hi-tech coupons and ball-point pens we have installed, perhaps this situation will be remedied. You be the judge.

Also, coming up on Nov. 25th is the deadline for renewing 2007 Club Memberships. As I recall the current Membership dues are $55, which includes your SCGA Membership. Check with the Club Secretary / Treasurer (Charlie) to confirm the going rate.

Teamwork, that is what it is all about, as exhibited here by Wally, Walter, Fredand who the hell is that adjusting his hat in the middle of the shot!!!!!!

USGA and other News

The USGA sent me official notice that I will be on the Evacuation Committee for the 2007 US Open at Oakmont, which means I will be responsible for shuttling players and officials to shelter in case of inclement weather or clandestine attacks from Canada.

As volunteers, we were required to fork over $150 for the necessary uniforms, which included a baseball hat, a polo shirt, 2 wind-breakers, an uzi, 45-cal automatic, CPR kit, assortment of Kevlar body armor, an autographed photo of Nicole Kallis slapping the face of some red-headed dick, MRE's for a week and semi-private accommodations in a pup-tent outside of Monroe-ville.

Evacuate this!

The man in the below picture may seem less than excited; however, deep down he is doing cart-wheels as he has just beaten the best of Oaks North to claim the coveted Club Championship. Congratulations to Jim Dunlap!!!
